

A special assembly was conducted by the teachers, where they performed foot tapping dance, melodious songs and other entertaining programs for the students.

Publication: The Times of India (NIE) | Edition: Ahmedabad

Date: November 18, 2016 | Page No: 04 | Category: DPS (Bopal)

DPS celebrates Children's day

Children's Day is to celebrate the childhood in one and all. Enjoying the spirit of children's day, DPS-Bopal celebrated this day with great pomp and show on November 15.

A special assembly was organized by the teachers where they mesmerized the audience with a melodious song and flute recital. The "Fashion show", depicting the various state costumes, received rapturous applause from the students. This was followed by a Rajasthani folk dance form 'Ghoomer' and a song parody was which enthralled the students with fun and laughter. Shrishti Chakraborty, a participant of Voice of India, held the audience spellbound as her melodious voice resonated the whole atmosphere. She was recognized by the Principal, with a cash award.

Surender P. Sachdeva, Principal DPS-Bopal, in his speech wished the students on this occasion and shared his love for the students, who are an asset to all the teachers. The programme ended with the national anthem. This celebration left a lingering mark on the students and teachers alike as they proceeded towards their classes.