

Delhi Public School Bopal hosted CBSE Cryptic Crossword Contest 2016 on 26 August 2016.

INDIAN EXPRESS 29.8.2016

EVENT - DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL, BOPAL

CBSE has recently organised Cryptic Crossword Contest 2016 (CCCC 2016) in 37 cities across the country, realising the importance of developing the mental faculties and enhancing the problem solving skills of students to cater to the present day demands. Delhi Public School – Bopal recently hosted the Ahmedabad city chapter. CBSE organised the Cryptic Crossword Contest 2016 for students studying in classes IX to XII. Crossword aficionados from various schools of Ahmedabad participated in this one of its kind competition. Speaking on this occasion, Principal, DPS-Bopal, Mr. Surender P. Sachdeva expressed that skill development is the most powerful weapon to change the world for which Crossword can be an effective tool. This unique competition was conducted by Mr. Raj Narayan Singh, National Coordinator for the event on behalf of CBSE at DPS Bopal campus for Ahmedabad City Round Chapter. The teams gave one another a tough competition with Shanti Asiatic School emerging as the winning team while Udgam School for Children was the runners up. The winning team would qualify for the next round at Delhi. All the participating teams were awarded with certificates while the winners and runners up were given trophies.