From the Principal's Pen

'Success usually comes to those who are too busy to be looking for it.'

Henry David Thoreau

School lays the foundation for every individual's life. If the foundation consists of ingredients such as persistence, perseverance, punctuality and resilience, then each endeavour becomes successful leading to what is popularly known as 'the winning habit'. I am delighted and happy to share that the results of the school have been outstanding with nine out of ten city toppers from DPS-Bopal.

The commendable performances of the city toppers, Darshini Shah in science with 97.6% and Aashvi Shah in Humanities with 97.4%, have been achieved by working hard, setting goals and pursuing regular patterns of work. Perseverance, in reaching the goals that they have set in following a schedule without deviation despite many temptations is one of the reasons that they stand head and shoulders above their peers.

Another interesting aspect of these high achievers is that not only do they excel in their studies but have always behaved in an impeccable manner, showing the utmost respect to teachers and treating their peers amicably. While academic excellence is of primary importance, soft skills go a long way in paving the path to success. Finally, I recommend that all students pursue healthy habits as without good health goals become overwhelming and insurmountable. I wish you a healthy and focused academic year ahead!

मन की बात

मन सहसा ही रुक गया
यूँ ही जाने क्यों थम गया
बातें करता था वो सबसे
अब मौन रह कर जम गया ।

पूछा मैंने – क्यों? थमा रूका तु
पर जाने किस बात पर वह अटक गया
कुछ कहते कहते मुझसे
अपना खालीपन मुझको वह दे गया ।

अब अस्मंजस में हूँ मैं कैसे करूँ उससे बात
फिर कोशिश की करने की उससे मुलाकात

अबकि बार गया मैं पूरी तैयारी के साथ
आकर उसके साथ बैठा मैं और शुरु की उसने अपनी बात ।

अपने मन की बात उसने
ऐसे मुझको बतलाई
मेरे पूरे अंतर मन को जैसे
झकझोर गई उसकी तनहाई

किया आज ये वादा उससे
फिर मैंने उसके साथ
रहूँगा हमेशा साथ तेरे
बनकर मैं दिन और रात

धरती माँ

हमारी दुनिया है बड़ी प्यारी,
दिखलाती महिमा अपनी न्यारी।
अपनी गोद में प्यार से सुलाती,
मस्ती अपनी हमें दिखलाती।

क्या है राजा और क्या है रंक,
फैलाए हैं सभी ने यहाँ पंख।
लाखों करोड़ों यहाँ पर रंग,
रहते जो सदा हमारे संग।

फूलों की महक मन बहलाए,
देने वाली धरती माँ कहलाए।

हमको सुख और अच्छाई दी,
बदले में कोई चीज़ न ली।

है दया और करुणा की मूरत,
कितनी प्यारी इसकी सूरत।
ऐसी माँ को करो सलाम,
धरती माँ को शत-शत प्रणाम।

School Promise

Each day I'll do my best
And I won't do any less.
My work will always please me
And I won't accept a mess.
I'll colour very carefully
My writing will be neat.
And I will not be happy
Till my papers are complete
I'll always do my homework
And try my best on every test.
I won't forget my promise.
To do my very best.

-Ansh Bhura – V I

Mistakes

The unwanted, unpredictable ones
Sometimes too much sound
It is to remind you, like a horn
They are unlimited, they abound.

Although they are just some rubbish things,
Making us feel wrong all the day
It is to empower you-so that you can fly on your wings,
It shows how close you are to your goal, how much far away.

They are the unknown, untold teachers,
Who try to get you to the right way?
Inspiring in you to get new features
They are good and gracious reminders- I say.

They want you to prove them wrong
Don't take them too heavy, nor too light
They are just small memories- and life's journey is very long
It's just to keep bad situations out of sight.

Summer!

Here comes the summer breeze,
Children playing in tulip fields.

Cool drinks, mangoes and little caps,
Splashy pools and maybe some hats.

Watermelons are the best things you can eat,
Under the shade of shady trees.

Parks are the best places you can go
Relaxing with friends sharing some jokes.

I wish I could stay in summer all my life,
But next comes the rainy season with rains alive.

-Palak Wahal - V H

Hit back

Today I realise - this body of mine,
Deserves nothing but respect.
No, I won't stay quiet,
Neither will I take it as my destiny.
This body of mine is gold,
And I will go miles and miles to protect it.
No, I didn't deserve that grasp,
I didn't deserve to be manhandled.
No, it WASN'T supposed to happen.

Now, I won't stay quiet.
I am a gush of wind.
I am a hurricane,
I am restless.
I am a fierce woman, empowered.
Better than ever, will be stronger forever.
Passionate and elegant, glorifying my existence;
I will fight.

Potterheads

We the Potterheads
I wish I had a wand
It would be everything I want
Oh! No, no even admission in Hogwarts
And I'd be left with no words

I want to be a Gryffindor
And I'm sure I'll have fun some more
I don't want to come in the Slytherin's sight
As they seldom chose the right

A Butterbeer with Harry would do
But Ron and Hermione should come too
For Hermione, a room without a book
Is like a body without a soul

I want to face a Boggart in a drawer
Like Alastor Moody, the Auror
So Riddikulus!!

Catching the snitch doesn't make you
The best player on the pitch
Victor Krum, so hungry
For victory
That is why I thought:
The person who transfigured into a shark
Could have performed the Dark Mark...

Hermione, what a silent thief you are
Ron couldn't figure out whom
You were going with to the Yule Ball

What a silent thief you are
Ginny, the little naughty Weasley
Brought a Potter in the family

Ron, I felt so sorry
For him, he deserved witty Hermione
Of course, Fred and George made their joke shop
And still scare everyone when they Apparate with a pop

Percy, the first Weasley twit
Who went out of his wit
And old wise Dumbledore
Who made many mistakes including the major four?
He was known to be the greatest wizard
But is no more

And how can we forget the Slytherin's heir
Who knew about the cupboard's pair
I don't know why was he so interested in the dark arts
And divided himself into parts
And this is beyond my will
But I must end this or I'll be ill!

-Rini Mehta and Rewa Lodhiya- VII E

Do you know?

I don't know if you know
But you are beautiful.
Even though the world makes
You think otherwise.

I don't know if you know,
But you are smart, intelligent, pretty
Even though your friends don't Think so.

I don't know if you know
But you are a queen
Even though you don't
Have a crown or a castle
Or most of all a king that everybody
Thinks is necessary in order to become one.

I don't know if you know but you are a
Fire that leaves a spark in
Everyone's heart you meet.

I don't know if you know
But you make the world a
Better place by merely existing.

I don't know if you know
But not everyone is like you,
Not everyone has a heart
As big and as limitless as the sky
That wraps everything around its arms
And gives everything a home.

I don't know if you know
But you don't need that friend
To catch you when you fall
Or to say everything's okay
When it's not
Because there will be days
When you must pick yourself up
And dust yourself up and say that you are fine

Because darling you are that strong,
Even though you don't feel so.
I don't know if you know
But it's okay to not be okay
Because life will throw all kinds
Of trash your way
And will hit you hard in the face
But you will handle it with courage and

Bravery but there will be times
When you will break
But there is nothing wrong in breaking
Sometimes, all things do.
But all things that break can be mended
And so can you.

-Achint Chhabra -XII H

Summer Break!

This summer, my dreams of travelling abroad, came true. My father booked a ten-day trip to Europe spreading across Italy, Vatican City, Venice, Austria, Lichtenstein, Switzerland and France beginning on 26th May.

When I reached Europe, I saw a few wonders of the world like the Colosseum of Rome, leaning tower of Pisa and Eiffel tower. I felt as if I was in a day dream. I loved our journey which started from Rome by bus and passed through many green pastures on well maintained highway and enjoyed the food at the Auto Grill throughout journey.

The historical monuments in Rome city were quite appealing. The largest church palace at Vatican City was marvellous and beautiful. The ferry took us to Venice where the monuments display a strong cultural heritage with their carvings and sculptures. We entered Innsbruck, Austria. It has a series of vine yards across the valley and beautiful Alps which were snow clad. Vaduz, a beautiful small city in Lichtenstien which looks like a painting of a scenery hung in many homes, was an enchanting experience.

It was a thrilling experience at Jungfrau and Engelberg in Switzerland which is called top of the Europe. We experienced freezing temperatures and sparkling white snow. We came to know about that entire infrastructure which was well developed a century back.

During our visit to Eiffel Tower, it was raining. I was disappointed because it meant we couldn't go to the second level. Suddenly after downpour of an hour, the sky became clear and we could go up. I could see the entire city of Paris from second level of Eiffel tower.

I returned to India with many memories and experiences which will stay with me for a lifetime.

Consumerism

The line that Tyler Durden - the character of the book The Fight Club- said, "The things you own end up owning you," best describes the consumerism-ridden world of ours.

Consumerism isn't just a problem anymore, it's a disease. It stops us from thinking about human rights, from thinking about terrorism, from thinking about poverty, sanitation, education, housing and lack of basic amenities needed for survival in most parts of the world. It stops us from thinking as humans.

Moreover, no matter how much we want to convince ourselves that this disease is spreading only in some countries, in a particular section, that is not the case. Slowly but surely it has engulfed the world. It has spread all over. However, it is more apparent in the world's richest sections than that of the poorer.

The real problem is not consumption itself but its patterns and effects. The consumption pattern today is undermining the natural and environmental resource base. It is widening the gap between the developed and developing nations. If a change for good doesn't happen soon, the problems of consumption and human development will worsen.

Consumerism is the new form of slavery. Ad firms, play a huge part in this. Advertisements make us want to splurge on items. They make us thinking "Oh my God! How have I survived without this thing in my life?" But the folly of endless consumerism sends us on a wild-goose chase for happiness through materialism.

Nathan Shedroff had said, "We're a lot further from killing consumerism than we are in promoting sustainability." And I have no option but to agree.

અમદાવાદની 15 સ્કૂલના બે હજારથી વધુ વિદ્યાર્થીનું રિઝલ્ટ જાહેર

CBSE ધો.12માં શહેરની નવ સ્કૂલનું 100% પરિણામ આવ્યું

અમદાવાદ । સીબીએસસીએ ધોરણ 12 (સાયન્સ, કોમર્સ, હ્યુમેનિટીસ) પરીક્ષાનું પરિણામ રવિવારે જાહેર કર્યું છે. જેમાં શહેરની અગ્રણી નવ સ્કૂલોનું પરિણામ 100% છે. અમદાવાદની 15 સ્કૂલના બે હજારથી વધુ વિદ્યાર્થીનું રિઝલ્ટ જાહેર કરાયું હતું. જેમાં સ્કૂલના સ્ટુડન્ટ્સે સ્કોર અને સોંગ્સ દ્વારા સેફ્ટીની જાણકારી ફેલાવી હતી. નોંધનીય છે કે સેફ્ટી વિશે દરેક ઉમરની વ્યક્તિને ખબર હોવી જોઈએ. આ ઘવેલ્ટમાં બાળકોએ આગ અને કુદરતી આફતો વેવી દુર્ઘટનાઓ થાય ત્યારે શું કરવું અને કેવી રીતે પોતાને કે બીજાને બચાવવા તે શીખવું હતું.
