

TRAILBLAZING TEENS OF INDIA

Nurturing dreams. Honoring passions.

CBSE Global Star

Creating history, the Central Board of Secondary Education this year declared a perfect score of 100% (500/500) in class XII. Ishani Debnath is the CBSE India topper and the CBSE Worldwide Topper in the Humanities stream. Talking to Times NIE, Ishani proudly expressed gratitude to her educators and said, "My educators were my support pillars throughout my journey. They played a significant role in concept clarity and how to approach a topic." Her preparation strategy involved thoroughly revising school topics, clearing doubts regularly, solving assignments and extra questions, studying the textbook in detail, and referring to previous years' question papers. Debnath, who aspires to graduate in psychology honours from a renowned University, said, "There are no miracles; it is only consistent hard work and planning under the guidance of able educators that brings success."

Delhi Public School–Bopal

Delhi Public School–Bopal, Ahmedabad resonated with energy and mindfulness on June 21, 2025, as the school celebrated the XI International Yoga Day with great enthusiasm. The entire campus came together in a vibrant display of wellness, where students from junior and senior school participated in a variety of yoga activities.

The day began with junior school students engaging in calming meditation and practicing foundational yoga postures. Simultaneously, students joyfully presented a spirited "Yoga Se Hoga" formation, performing asanas and Pranayam with great enthusiasm. Adding a creative touch, junior students also made colourful posters highlighting the importance of yoga, showcasing their understanding through art and messages.

The senior school students brought vibrancy to the celebration through a coordinated yoga demonstration that included stretching, balancing, and breathing exercises. A visual highlight of the event was the striking "XI International Yoga Day" group formation, symbolising unity and discipline. These symbolic formations captured the spirit of the day and became a memorable moment in the celebration. A thoughtfully curated video further enhanced the experience, capturing the significance of yoga along with glimpses of students actively engaged in their sessions. This audiovisual addition served as a powerful reminder of yoga's timeless relevance. The celebration at DPS Bopal was a true reflection of the school's commitment to nurturing holistic well-being. Blending movement, mindfulness, and creativity, the event inspired the entire school community to embrace yoga not just as a one-day activity, but as a way of life that promotes lifelong health and inner peace.

The Case of the Hidden Truth

Ethan Harris, a young lawyer with a sharp mind and an unshakable belief in justice, found himself facing one of the toughest cases of his career. Ava Kingsley, a well-loved schoolteacher, was accused of stealing money from the charity she had helped establish. The evidence against her seemed irrefutable, and the prosecution, led by the formidable Margaret Steele, left no stone unturned in portraying Ava as a cunning thief.

From the very start, the trial felt like an uphill battle. Margaret presented emails, financial records, and witnesses that painted Ava in a terrible light. Ethan's defence appeared weak in comparison. Ava maintained her innocence, but without solid evidence, it was her word against the prosecution's overwhelming case.

Just when all hope seemed lost, a breakthrough came. Ethan's assistant, Mia, discovered an anomaly in the prosecution's key evidence: the emails that incriminated Ava had timestamps that didn't match the server logs. This discrepancy hinted at tampering, opening the door to a possible frame-up.

The next day in court, Ethan presented the findings. He built a new narrative, pointing out how Richard Cane, another trustee of the charity, had both the means and motive to frame Ava. "Sometimes the most trusted faces hide the darkest truths," Ethan argued, his voice steady but impassioned.

Margaret fought back fiercely, dismissing Ethan's claims as desperate attempts to save a sinking case. But Ethan's evidence planted doubt in the minds of the jury. The once-clear case against Ava now seemed murky and uncertain.

When verdict day arrived, the courtroom was tense with anticipation. The jury announced their decision: "Not guilty." Ava's relief was palpable as she burst into tears, thanking Ethan for standing by her when no one else did.

Outside the courthouse, reporters surrounded Ethan, asking how he had managed to win a case everyone thought was unwinnable. Ethan smiled and replied, "The truth has a way of surfacing, no matter how deeply it's buried. You just have to dig hard enough to find it."

For Ethan, this case was more than just a victory. It was a reminder that even when the odds are stacked against you, perseverance and belief in justice can lead to triumph.

30th National Reading Day celebrated with enthusiastic participation

DPS
BOPAL

Delhi Public School-Bopal commemorated the 30th National Reading Day recently, with enthusiastic participation from students of classes I to XII. The celebration was part of the school's continuous efforts to cultivate a strong reading culture among young learners.

The day began with students taking a reading pledge, reaffirming the importance of reading for personal growth and national development. A variety of engaging activities were conducted across all the classes, including book summary presentations, Word Box activities, and storytelling sessions in primary classes all designed to build vocabulary, enhance comprehension, and promote a love for books.

Special arrangements in the school libraries added to the significance of the day, providing students with enriching experiences in a book-centric environment. A key highlight was a quiz on National Reading Day in the senior school, which sparked students' curiosity about P N Panicker, the visionary of the Library Movement, and the history behind the occasion.

Students eagerly immersed themselves in a wide range of books, joyfully flipping through pages and discovering new worlds and ideas. The event reflected the spirit of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, which emphasises developing strong reading habits from an early age to support critical thinking, cognitive growth, and language acquisition.

Bharatiya Bhasha Summer Camp Held

Delhi Public School-Bopal celebrated the Bharatiya Bhasha Summer Camp 2025, embracing linguistic diversity in line with the spirit of Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat. The camp provided students with a joyful platform to explore one more Indian language, enhancing their appreciation of India's rich cultural and linguistic heritage.

Through engaging sessions, students participated in activities like role-plays, real-life conversation practices, and storytelling to strengthen their communication skills. Cultural immersion was further promoted through art, dance, and local cuisine experiences, creating a deeper bond with the language.

Virtual city tours and audiovisual tools enriched the sessions, offering insight into regional traditions, monuments, and daily life. Vocabulary-building games, interactive quizzes, and musical activities added an element of fun and excitement to the learning journey. The camp culmination saw enthusiastic student performances before an audience of parents and peers, celebrating their learning. The success of the camp was made possible through the collaborative efforts of teachers, volunteers, and local language experts. The event concluded with certificate distribution, leaving students inspired to continue their multilingual journey.
